(By the Associated Press.)
MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Aug. 26.—General William Booth, commander in chief of the Salvation Army, died tonight at 10:10 o'clock.

General Booth underwent an operation for the removal of a carcinoma of the eye twelve weeks ago. Two days after the operation began polyuria set in and with exceptional occasional urination, his health steadily declined.

William Booth was born in 1829.

Under the constitution of the Salvation Army, the commander in chief names his own successor. Booth placed his name in a sealed envelope two years ago.

While nobody knows the name in the envelope, it is believed to be that of General Booth for thirty years chief of the Salvation Army, he has selected his successor. He died in 1886.
